Hi Stephanie,

Here is what we have completed through 1/26/11. We are narrowing in on the last few files in a few remaining folders. My hope was to have them completed Friday, however many of the files in the bottom of the list of the OCR Bate Stamped folder have proven both lengthy and difficult going as far as legibility. At this point, I'm pushing for the end of today. But I'll keep in touch if that changes.

Thank you,

Hi Stephanie,

I was hoping we would have made better progress today. However, we're down to two people, so I think that the 17 homes phase will be a bit longer for total completion. We are trying to add on folks for the next phase.

I do have a master deliverable of the entries through January 26th that I can send to you immediately if you'd like. I'll keep you updated as to our data entry.

Thank you so much.

Laura Wilson

Hi Laura -

We had a call this morning to talk about the data review process to discuss some of the changes we talked about last week. We are going to try to streamline the process and hopefully eliminate some of the duplicate data. I'd like you to complete the 17 home list the way you have been working and then take a break. We'll come up with a better process before you complete the expanded list and get that to you as soon as possible (hopefully Monday). Let me know if you have any questions. Also, can you give me an estimate of the hours you've spent on this task so far? Just a quick estimate, nothing too detailed, trying to get you guys some help so I need to estimate how many hours it will take to complete things.

Thanks-
